

THE BALTIMORE CONFERENCE, Methodist Episcopal Church, assembled yesterday in Washington. Various resolutions were offered in relation to Secession, the War, the oath of allegiance, &c., and referred to a Committee. When the subject of Preachers was taken up and the name of Mr. Bull was called as a superannuated preacher, he made a statement that his residence was in Baltimore, and that he had been living there. He said he understood there were some statements to be made against him, and he wanted to hear them before he left the room.

Mr. Morgan said he had no statements to make, but he desired to know how brother Bull stood, and he hoped that some one would state the subject.

Mr. Phelps desired to know whether Mr. Bull had worshipped in the Methodist Church in Alexandria.

Mr. Bull said he had not, and hoped he never would.

Mr. Speake asked Mr. Bull if he had not preached to the seceders from the church in Alexandria?

Mr. Bull replied that he had, but he could not understand why a man should be taken to task for preaching the Gospel anywhere and to any people. He also intimated that he could tell things against Mr. Speake.

Mr. Speake hoped the fullest latitude would be allowed Mr. Bull, and he stated that when his name was called he would demand an investigation.

Rev. E. P. Phelps said he thought it did matter where a man preached, for if his preaching to a certain congregation threw a weight of influence against the country and the Government, the act was certainly reprehensible. As to the assertion that those to whom Mr. Bull preached had taken the oath of allegiance, Mr. Phelps held that that amounted to nothing, for a man who would raise his hand to tear down his government would not hesitate to perjure. Mr. Phelps said it was not simply the character of John W. Bull that was at stake, but it involved the Methodist Episcopal Church and of the Baltimore Conference.

Other remarks were made, and Mr. Phelps desired to know of Mr. Bull, whether he would do better in the future, and if he could, whether he would always attend a Methodist church.

Mr. Bull said he never passed a Methodist church, except that one in Alexandria, and in that one he could not worship unless there was a radical change among the leading men of the church. He had strong antipathies in the matter and his self-respect would not allow him to worship there.

NEW AND IMPROVED INVENTION OF ARTIFICIAL CHEOPLASTIC BONE TEETH
WITHOUT METAL PLATE OR CLASPS.

DR. S. B. SIGESMOND & CO.,

260 Pennsylvania avenue, between 12th and 13th streets. Washington, D. C.,

CALLS the attention of the public to the following advantages of his improved system:

1. The Teeth of their manufacture will never corrode nor change color by any acids, being three-fourths lighter than any other.

2. No teeth or roots need be extracted, as the artificial ones can be inserted over them.

3. The roots will be made inoffensive and never to ache.

4. No temporary teeth are needed, as permanent ones can be made immediately, thereby preserving the natural expression of the face, which under the old system is frequently disfigured.

5. This work has been fully tested over five years by many of the first chemists and physicians of this country.

Dr. S. & Co., have also invented a white undestructive metal filling, with which the most sensitive teeth can be filled without pain, and can build up a perfect sound tooth on any side roots, which will last through lifetime.

The best of references given by Dr. W. Mott; Dr. Doremus, Professor of Chemistry, N. Y., and thousands of others.

Call and examine for yourself.
